

MEDIA RELEASE

EMBARGOED: MIDNIGHT 22 SEPTEMBER 2014

OVER 24 MULTICULTURAL COMMUNITIES RECOGNISED AT THE MULTICULTURAL AWARDS FOR EXCELLENCE 2014

Victoria's Multicultural Awards for Excellence 2014 were announced last night in a ceremony at Government House. Now in its 15th year, these respected Awards acknowledge outstanding achievements and services made by individuals and organisations that support cultural diversity in the various communities across Victoria.

This year a total of 73 individuals and 17 organisations received awards in 10 categories, spanning various sectors of the community including education, local government, policing, business and media.

Victorian Multicultural Commission Chairperson, Mr Chin Tan said awards are presented to a range of individuals and community organisations who work tirelessly to achieve harmony within our culturally diverse community.

"The Excellence Awards celebrate the contribution that multiculturalism makes to the State – the social, economic and cultural contribution that gives us our wonderful diversity and strengthens our community.

"Victorians come from over 200 countries, follow more than 130 faiths and nearly half of the State's population were either born overseas or have at least one parent born overseas – multiculturalism a way of life in Victoria and the Awards acknowledge this by applauding the people who work hard to make it so," said Mr Tan.

These annual Awards for Excellence demonstrate the Victorian Government's commitment to promoting Victoria as a multicultural place, with His Excellency, the Hon Alex Chernov AC QC, Governor of Victoria and the Premier of Victoria, the Hon Denis Napthine MP presenting awards.

"The Awards recognise the hard work that is taking place in numerous communities, small and large across Victoria, by people and organisations that are committed to the success of multiculturalism.

"Over 24 multicultural communities from all over the State were represented in the dynamic pool of award recipients," said Mr Tan.

A large spectrum of faiths, beliefs and nationalities comprised this year's award recipients including the Federation of Indian Associations Victoria, which aims to strengthen the Victorian Indian community and improve services. Kalyna Care is a Ukrainian organisation that is providing culturally appropriate aged care for various communities including Croatian, Egyptian, Russian, Polish and Italian. Chinese Digital Media took out the Marketing Award for their innovative digital work and Sargeant Timothy Lambourne was awarded the Police Annual Multicultural award for his passionate work with St Kilda's Jewish community.

Awards were also presented by the Minister for Multicultural Affairs and Citizenship, the Hon Matthew Guy MLC; Minister for Local Government, the Hon Tim Bull MP; Minister for Education, the Hon Martin Dixon MP; and Chief Commissioner of Police, Mr Ken Lay.

"I congratulate all the award recipients and thank them for their important and positive contributions to multiculturalism in Victoria, which is the cornerstone of a dynamic, vibrant and harmonious State," said Mr Tan.

A complete list of award recipients is included overleaf – this list and previous recipients can be found on the Commission's website: www.multicultural.vic.gov.au
